holder of a warrant of resurvey issued out of the land-office for the western shore, to Richard Caton, on the sixteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and since assigned to the said Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, by the said Richard Caton, which said warrant of resurvey was issued to authorise the resurvey of a lot or parcel of land which was conveyed in trust by the said Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, on the fourteenth day of May eighteen hundred and twenty-two, to Robert Patterson, John Eager Howard, junior, and Henry M. Murray, and the survivors and survivor, and the heirs of the survivors of them, for the use of Richard and Mary Caton, under such limitations, and for such uses, as are set forth in said deed: And whereas it appears that a resurvey has been made, and certificate returned, called The First Addition to Brookland Wood, but that the rules of the land-office do not permit the issuing of a patent upon any surveys made under warrants of resurvey under such circumstances; therefore,

Patent to issue

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the register of the land-office for the western shore be, and he is hereby authorised and directed, to issue a patent for the same to the said Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, for the land included in such certificate of resurvey thus made and returned, and called The First Addition to Brookland Wood, provided said certificate shall have become ready for patent according to the rules of the land-office.

CHAP. XX.

Passed Feb 6, 1829

An Act to change the public Road leading from Allen's Fresh to New-Port, in Charles County.

Preamble;

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the memorial of sundry inhabitants of Charles county, that the convenience of the public would be greatly promoted by changing the public road leading from Allen's Fresh to New-Port; therefore,

Commissioners appointed to open road

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George D. Parnham, Robert Crain, junior, and Alexius Lancaster, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to alter, open and locate, a public road leading from Allen's Fresh to New-Port, in Charles county, so as to run from a point near the south-west corner of Thomas Dunnington's fence, which binds the east side of the present road near Allen's Fresh, eastwardly, with the line of said Dunnington's land, and the land of John Winter, until it reaches the land of John Horsey, and then to incline southwardly through the land of said Horsey, until it intersect
