CHAP. 35.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That until the next annual election of Directors of said Banks, according to the provisions of the acts of eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter seventy-five, and eighteen hundred and twenty-six, chapter one hundred and seven, the present Directors and Officers thereof shall continue to act as such, and for the faithful discharge of their duties, shall be responsible in the same manner as if this act had not passed.

Present officers.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said Farmers and Mechanics Bank of Frederick county, and the said Bank of Westminster, shall be capable, in their corporate capacity and name, of suing in any court of law or equity in this state, for the recovery of any sum or sums of money which may be due to the Parent Bank or Branch Bank, aforesaid, upon bill, note, or otherwise, in the same manner as if this bill had not passed; and that no suit or other proceeding, now depending in any court of law or equity in this state, to which said Banks, or either of them, may be parties, shall abate or be otherwise affected by the passage of this act.

Powers to sue, &c.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall operate to release or impair the liabilities of said Banks, or either of them, created by the original acts hereinbefore referred to, but the same shall continue and remain in full force and operation to the same extent, as if this act had not passed.

Obligations continued.

CHAPTER 36.

To act to confirm and make valid a deed of trust therein mentioned.

Passed Jan 23, 1839

WHEREAS, on the twenty-sixth day of November, eighteen hundred and sixteen, a deed of marriage settlement was executed by a certain Eliza Bradford Dall, now Eliza B. Thomas, and Allen Thomas and Eleanor Dall, conveying certain property of the said Eliza, therein mentioned, to the said Eleanor, in trust, among other things, as to the issues and profits thereof, for the said Eliza, during her life, with power to said Eliza to dispose of the whole of the said trust-property to such persons as she might appoint, by any instrument of writing, in the nature of a last will and testament; and whereas after the marriage of the said Eliza and Allen, they, and the
