CHAP. XXXI.

Passed Feb 9, 1829

Preamble

An Act to revive the Act to Incorporate the Humane Impartial Society of the City of Baltimore.

WHEREAS a benevolent female society, under the title of The Humane Impartial Society, was established in the city of Baltimore for the purpose of employing and relieving widows, and educating orphans, and was heretofore incorporated by an act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at November session eighteen hundred and eleven, under the name, style and title, of The President and Managers of the Baltimore Humane Impartial Society: And whereas the said act of incorporation hath expired by its own limitation, and it is desirable that the same should be revived, and the corporate powers of said society continued; therefore,

Act revived

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That the act passed at November session eighteen hundred and eleven, chapter eighty-six, entitled, An act to incorporate the Humane Impartial Society of the city of Baltimore, be and the same is hereby revived, and shall be and continue in as full force and effect, until the year eighteen hundred and fifty, and until the end of the next session of the general assembly that shall happen thereafter, to every intent and purpose as if the corporate existence thereof had not been interrupted, or the act aforesaid had not expired.

President and managers

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the members of said society, and such persons as they shall think proper to associate with themselves, shall have full power and authority to meet at such time and place as they may deem convenient, and elect a president and managers of the society, pass by-laws, and do such other acts as may be necessary and proper for conducting the affairs of said society.

Part of an act repealed

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That so much of the act aforesaid as restrains the right of voting to persons who have paid up all arrearages, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and the right of voting may hereafter be regulated by the by-laws of the corporation.
