judges of the levy court of Frederick county, be and they are hereby empowered, in their discretion, to levy a sum of money not exceeding four thousand dollars, for the erection of a bridge over the river Monocacy, at or near where the public road leading from Creager's-town to Woodsborough now crosses said river, commonly called and known by Lille's Ford, of such materials, and of such construction, as they in their judgment may think best calculated to promote the public interest.

Whole sum not to be levied in one year

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the judges of said levy court shall not levy the whole sum in any one year, but may levy a certain portion of said money each and every year, on the assessable property of said county, not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars in any one year, until a sufficient sum is raised not exceeding four thousand dollars.

Levy court may make a plan for building

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That whenever such levy is made by the levy court of said county, and a sufficient sum of money raised to justify said court in their judgment to proceed in the object contemplated by this act, it shall and may be lawful for said court to agree upon and make out a certain plan for the building of said bridge, so soon as the nature of the case will admit, and when so agreed upon, it shall be the duty of said court to give public notice in at least two newspapers printed in Frederick-town, for proposals for building said bridge; and they are hereby authorised to enter into and make contracts with any one person or persons competent for building said bridge; and the levy court of said county are hereby authorised and required, to take bond or bonds, with sufficient security, from any person or persons, contractor or contractors, for the faithful performance of the contracts entered into for building said bridge.

Bridge to be a free one

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That when said bridge is built it shall be a free bridge to passengers to pass and repass.
