CHAP. LVII.

Passed Feb 14, 1829

An Act to Incorporate the Baltimore and Pittston Coal Company.

Preamble

WHEREAS William Lorman, William Gwynn, Ashton Alexander, and others, have represented to this general assembly of Maryland, that they are desirous of introducing coal into the city of Baltimore more extensively than it has heretofore been, for manufacturing purposes, for domestic use, and for exportation, from certain coal mines at and in the neighbourhood of Pittston, in the state of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, and have subscribed the sum of fifty thousand dollars, in shares of one hundred dollars each, for the purpose of working the said mines, transporting the coal therefrom, and vending the same, and carrying on all operations connected therewith, and have applied to this general assembly for an act of incorporation to accomplish the objects and purposes aforesaid; therefore,

Company incorporated
