

Marine Corps of the United States, and directing a sword to be presented to him;

11 Resolutions expressive of the sense of the Legislature, of the gallant conduct, during the late war, of Joseph Smoot, of Dorchester county, a lieutenant in the United States' Navy, and directing a sword to be presented to him;

12 A resolution in favor of the securities of Charles Jones, late sheriff and collector of Somerset county;

13 A resolution in favor of Jonathan Morris, of Washington county, in the state of Pennsylvania, who was a captain in the army of the revolutionary war;

14 A resolution relating to a fine imposed by Allegany county court, on Van Dunn, for selling liquor without license, which after the payment thereof, was remitted by the Governor and Council;

15 A resolution directing the investment in bank stock, of the money in the treasury due to Montgomery county, as her portion of the free school fund;

16 A resolution in favor of Richard Mackall, late one of the states inspectors of Tobacco in the city of Baltimore;

17 A report and resolution authorising the sale of certain articles of old furniture in the government house, accompanied by a list thereof;

18 A resolution requiring an annual return to the legislature, of an inventory of the furniture belonging to the government house;

19 A resolution in favor of Priscilla White, widow of the late James White, who was a pensioner of the state;

20 A resolution authorising an appropriation for furniture and repairs of the government house;

21 A resolution in favor of Sarah Gould, of Dorchester county, widow of the late William Gould, who was a soldier of the revolutionary war;

22 A resolution requiring the Armourer at Annapolis to deliver to captain John Carson, of Hartford county, certain arms and accoutrements therein mentioned;

23 A resolution providing for the investment of Talbot county's proportion of the free school fund, now or that may hereafter come into the treasury, in certain unsubscribed stock of the state, in one of the banks of the city of Baltimore;

24. A resolution rescinding certain part of a resolution, passed at December session, 1825, No. 52, relating to the