CHAPTER 97.

An act for the relief of Elizabeth Denison and Robert Miller Denison. Passed Feb. 25, 1835

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Denison and Robert Miller Denison, of the city of Baltimore, have represented that Robert Miller, late of said city, deceased, gave to said Elizabeth and Robert Miller Denison, certain negroes in the State of Virginia, as part of his property in the firm of Arthur & Miller, and afterwards confirmed the said gift by his last will and testament, and it is doubtful whether, by virtue of the act, passed at December session of the year eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter eighty seven, the said Elizabeth and Robert Miller Denison may introduce into this State any of the said negroes; and whereas, said persons have asked leave to introduce five of said negroes;—
Therefore, Preamble

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for said Elizabeth Denison and Robert Miller Denison to introduce into this State any five of the said negroes, to every effect, as if the right to do so were given by said act, and upon the terms and conditions Permission to introduce free slaves
