

act, with an interest on the amount so paid, of ten per centum per annum; then in that event and from thenceforth, all title or color of title, derived by such purchaser or purchasers, by and in virtue of their purchase, at such collectors sale, shall be utterly null and void, and the title of the owner or owners, whose interest may have been sold, as complete as if no such sale had been made.

Right to redeem

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if the purchaser or purchasers, at collector's sales as aforesaid, do and shall deposit with the clerk of Allegany county, copies of the advertisements required by the first section of this act, together with the affidavits of the editors who have published the same, that the same have been published according to the provisions of the first section of this act, to be recorded by the clerk of Allegany county, whose duty it is hereby made to record the same, that such record shall be good and sufficient evidence that the provisions of this law have been complied with.

Copy of advertisement—record

CHAPTER 45.

An to Incorporate the Chairmaker's Beneficial Society of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 3, 1835

WHEREAS, John Holliday, David Stapleton, William H. Bloss, Hugh M. Logan, Martin Haney, William Dillehurst, William M. Philips and others, have formed themselves into a society for the laudable purpose of affording relief to each other, and their respective families, in the event of misfortune, sickness and death; and having prayed an act of incorporation, that they may the better execute their intentions; and the Legislature being desirous of promoting such useful institutions, Therefore—

Preamble

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the persons mentioned in the preamble of this act, all others that now are or may hereafter become members of the corporation here erected, and their successors, are hereby declared to be one community, corporation, and body politic, by the name, style, and title of the Chairmakers Beneficial Society of Baltimore, and by that name shall be able and capable in law, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, in any court of law or equity, and to make and use a common seal, and the

Incorporated

Text