

same according to the reputed quantity or number of acres, and the best information they may be able to obtain; and the said commissioners when they shall have laid out such ditch or ditches, and completed such valuation and appraisement as aforesaid, shall cause to be put in at least three of the most public places in the neighborhood of the said marshes and low grounds in this State, and in at least three of the most public places in the neighborhood of the said marshes and low grounds in the State of Delaware, written or printed notices that such ditch or ditches has or have been laid out, and of their completion of such valuation and appraisement of the said marshes and low grounds, and specifying and appointing a time and place for a general meeting of the said owners of the said marshes and low grounds, which said time shall be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days, after the day of advertising or giving such notice, and which said place of meeting shall be at some convenient place in the neighborhood of said marshes and low grounds, at which said meetings the said commissioners shall constitute a board of appeal, and shall hear and determine all and every of the objections, grievances and complaints of all and every person or persons who may consider him, herself or themselves aggrieved by such appraisement or valuation as aforesaid, and the said commissioners so sitting as a board of appeal as aforesaid shall have power to make such alterations in such valuation and appraisement as upon a full hearing and consideration of all circumstances they may deem just and equitable, and the said commissioners after having as such board of appeal settled and adjusted such valuation and appraisement of the said marshes and low grounds as aforesaid, shall make out under their hands a certificate containing the names of the respective owners of the said marshes and low grounds, the quantity held by each owner, and the appraisement of the several quantities held by each owner or by joint owners respectively, according as the same shall have been settled and adjusted by the said commissioners so sitting as a board of appeal as aforesaid, and the said commissioners shall deliver or cause to be delivered such, their certificate, into the Recorder's office in and for Kent county aforesaid in the State of Delaware, to be there recorded by the Recorder of deeds for said county, which said certificate shall be conclusive upon all parties; and a copy of the record thereof certified by the said Recorder under his hand and seal of office shall be good and sufficient evidence in all courts of justice, and

Public notice of said estimate.

Meeting of the owners.

Board of appeal.

Correct the estimates.

Official certificates.

To be recorded.

Conclusive and legal.