

the respective taxes so remaining unpaid, or any part thereof remaining unpaid, computing from the time fixed as aforesaid for the payment of the same. CHAP. 180.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That all resolutions, questions and matters, shall be determined by majority of votes, and at all meetings every owner of any of said marshes or low grounds, and every guardian of an infant owner, may vote if present, or if absent may vote by proxy regularly constituted by a note in writing, signed by such absent owner or guardian. Majority required.
Infants.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have power at any annual or adjourned meeting thereof, but not at an occasional meeting, to make and adopt, ordain and establish all such by-laws, not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this state, and the state of Delaware, or to this act, as shall be deemed expedient and necessary for effectually carrying into operation the provisions of this act. Power to make by-laws.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary for the time being, to enter in a book, to be provided by the company for that purpose, a correct copy of this act, and of every certificate of valuation and appraisement of said marshes and low grounds, which shall be made out by any Commissioners, and recorded as directed in the third section of this act, the name of each and every Manager, Treasurer and Secretary who shall be chosen, and the time when chosen, and if to fill a vacancy, what vacancy; the sum or sums of money ascertained or determined at any meeting to be raised, the apportionment and assessment thereof by the managers among the several owners of the said marshes and low grounds, and the time appointed for the payment of the same; and shall also make an entry of each and every assignment of ditches or parts of ditches by the said company, to any particular manager or managers; and of every by-law which shall be made and adopted, ordained or established, and of all allowances of pay made by the said company to any officer or officers thereof, or other person, whoever the same shall be, other than, or different from those specified in this act; and of all such directions which shall be given by said company to the managers aforesaid, or any of them, and generally to enter in said book all such proceedings of the said company and its officers, and all such matters as shall be necessary for ascertaining the state and circumstances of the affairs of the said company; which said book, and the entries so made, or caused to be made therein by the Duties of clerk.

His record.

Of assignments.
Of By Laws.
Of proceedings.