

CHAPTER 183.

CHAP. 184.

An act supplementary to the act entitled, "An act relating to the Jail of Baltimore city and county," passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter fifty-eight.

Passed Mar. 11, 1832

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That after any person shall conformably to the provisions of the twentieth section of the act to which this is a supplement, have been received and imprisoned in the Jail of Baltimore city and county, the sum of one dollar and forty cents for maintenance of such prisoner shall be paid weekly in advance for and during the whole time of such imprisonment; and on any default of such payment being made at the end of the first week for which the payment required by said section of said act shall have been made, or at the end of every week thereafter in advance, the warden of said Jail shall be and he is hereby authorised and directed to discharge and release such person from said Jail and said imprisonment.

$1.40 allowed for maintenance of the prisoners.

May discharge if not paid in advance.

CHAPTER 184.

An act for the benefit of William G. Read and Sophia Catharine Read.

Passed Mar. 11, 1832

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all deeds or conveyances heretofore or hereafter made, by William George Read of Baltimore, and Sophia Catharine his wife, of or concerning any lands, tenements or hereditaments, whereof they are seized in right of the said Sophia Catharine, the usual covenants for renewal of leases, warranty, and quiet enjoyment, and other covenants real, to run with the land, shall be good and availing to all purposes in the law whatsoever, as though the said Sophia Catharine had been sole and discover, at the time of executing the same; Provided, that all such deeds or conveyances be duly executed and acknowledged, by the said Sophia Catharine, according to the laws of Maryland, in force at the time, regulating conveyances of the estates of femes covert.

Deeds, &c. made valid.

Proviso.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That any written agreement for the conveyance of any lands, tenements or heredita-

* Written agreements made valid.