Instalments. §

Pensioners to move for.

Or Debarred.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That after the erection of said Alms-house, and the same shall have been prepared for use, the commissioners aforesaid, shall require whenever they may deem it just, those indigent persons who receive pensions by county assessment, to relinquish the same, and repair to the protection which may be afforded by the Alms-house, hereby intended to be established, and if such persons when so required shall refuse or neglect to comply, they shall be debarred such pensions by county assessment.

CHAPTER 245.

Passed Mar. 15, 1833 An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act to provide for the making the several Turnpike Roads, and for the extension of the Charters of the several Banks therein mentioned, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter forty-two.

Preamble

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, that great injury is likely to result to the Banks, and individual stockholders, who have subscribed for stock under the act to which this is a supplement, by reason of rapid traveling over the bridges which they have erected over the Monocacy, and by reason of persons improperly and fraudulently avoiding the gate erected upon their road, and thereby greatly lessening the amount of their toll—Therefore,

Persons passing at too rapid gait.

Or passing by any private way.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if after the passage of this act, any person or persons whatsoever, riding in, or driving any sulkey, chair, or chaise, phaeton, cart, waggon, sleigh, sled, or any other carriage of burthen or pleasure, riding or leading any horse, mare, or gelding, shall therewith go upon, or cause to go upon, or pass over the bridge, which the said Banks, and other stockholders have erected over the Monocacy, at a more rapid gait than a walk; or if any person, riding in, or driving any of the vehicles aforementioned, or any other carriage of any description whatsoever, or riding, or leading any horse, mare, or gelding, or driving hogs, sheep, or
