

collectors on account of lands sold for tax, for the purpose of redeeming the same, they are hereby required immediately to pay over the said monies to the person or persons (or their legal representatives) for whose use the same was intended.

CHAP. 86.

CHAPTER 85.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to provide for the erection of a building for the accommodation of Somerset County Court.

Passed Feb. 20, 1832

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners appointed by the Levy court of Somerset county to build a Court-house, or Court-room for said county, in pursuance of an act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter thirty-five, be, and they are hereby authorised to build a Court-house, or Court-room, on any of the public property, in the Town of Princess Ann, which they may deem proper, and shall have power or authority to tear down any public building, at present thereon, except the county jail, and the fire proof building in which the county records are now kept.

Powers extended.

CHAPTER 86.

An act to make valid the Deed of Conveyance therein mentioned.

Passed Feb. 21, 1832

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of Christian Henry Besler, that on the fourteenth day of September, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, he obtained a deed of conveyance for a tract of land from Archibald Thompson, and Elizabeth his wife, which was executed and acknowledged in the way, as he thought, the law required; And whereas, the said Christian Henry Besler, being ignorant of the manner of proceeding in such cases, trusted altogether to others, and now finds his deed inadequate to give him the title which was intended to be conveyed, which defect in said instrument has happened from the neglect of the magistrates who took the acknowledgment, to endorse a correct certificate thereon; and
