

any women, more or fewer, in the second voyage, hee shall bee allowed 30. Acres of good land in surplufage aboute the former proportions: for every woman he shall so carry over, or send over.

6 Whatsoever husband-man, or other laboring-man, shall bee willing to goe to this Plantation, and to binde himselfe a seruant there for five yeares, he shall be entertained (if he come within the limited time to the place appointed) vpon these termes; that is to say; he shall be found sufficient meate and drinke, and clothing, during the said terme: and at the end of the said terme, he shall haue 50. Acres of good land conueied to him, and his heires for ever, within the said Province, a whole yeeres provision of all necessaries according to the vsuall custome of other Plantations.

And if hee bee either a sufficient Carpenter, Ioyner, Brick-layer, Brick-maker, Mason, Wheele-wright, Cooper, or Ship-wright, in stead of these 50. Acres proposed, hee shall haue 100. Acres of good land, at the end of his terme, and the rest of the aforesaid conditions, for three yeares service onely.

VWhoever intends to partake in this second Voyage, must come, or send before the 20. of October next ensuing, to M. William Peaseley Esq. his Lordsh. brother in-law, at his house on the back-side of Drury-lane, over against the Cock-pit on the field-side: And there to him deliuer their transportation-money, according to the number of men they meane to send over, at the rate of sixe pound a man, to the end convenient passage may bee reserved for them, in his Lordsh. shipping; beyond which time it will not be possible for any to partake in this second Voyage.