So it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion, the question was then put, That the following be inserted after the last amendment? "And be it enacted, That the fourth section of an act of assembly, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, entitled, An act for the promotion of literature in this state, be and the same is hereby repealed." Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion, That the following be inserted after the last amendment?

"And in lieu of the seventeen hundred and fifty pounds annual donation heretofore appropriated to St. John's college, which has been withdrawn during the present session of assembly, and in order that the trustees of the said college may be enabled to continue the buildings already erected, the philosophical apparatus, and other necessaries, heretofore provided at great expence for the purpose of educating youth in the higher branches of literature, Be it enacted, That the sum of — dollars be paid annually, in half yearly payments, to the visitors and governors of the said college, and their successors."

The question was put, That the blank therein be filled up with the words "two thousand?" Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the said blank be filled up with the words "sixteen hundred?" The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

A F F I R M A T I V E.
