By the S E N A T E, December 8, 1806.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE have reconsidered the bill, entitled, An act authorising the justices of the orphans court to take sheriffs bonds, and have agreed to recede from our amendment.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

Which was read.

Also the bill authorising the justices of the orphans court to take sheriffs bonds, endorsed "the amendment receded from." Ordered to be engrossed. The bill for the relief of George Washington Sykes, of Calvert county, endorsed "will not pass." The bill to incorporate the stockholders of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, the bill supplementary to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate the stockholders in the Union Bank of Maryland, the supplement to an act, entitled, An act to alter the mode of collecting the county tax in Harford county, and the bill authorising a lottery for raising a sum of money for the rector and vestry of Saint-Thomas's parish, in Baltimore county, severally endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. The resolution relative to the repairs of the senate chamber and room of the house of delegates, endorsed "assented to." And the following message:

By the S E N A T E, December 8, 1806.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

YOUR message of the 5th instant, proposing a joint committee on the subject therein mentioned, has had our serious consideration, and as we do not perceive the advantages that would result from a conference thereon, we beg leave to decline the same.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

Which was read.

Mr. Carroll, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of sundry inhabitants of Montgomery county, praying that the road, which by an act of the last session of assembly, was directed to be opened from Barnesville, in Montgomery county, to Zachariah Maccubbins's mill, and thence to intersect the main road leading from Frederick-town to George-town, at or near Log-town, might be opened by those immediately interested, and not at the expence of the county at large, have given the same all due consideration, and beg leave to report, that whereas by the act of November session, one thousand eight hundred and five, entitled, An act to open a road from Barnesville, in Montgomery county, to Zachariah Maccubbins's mill, and thence to intersect the main
