By the S E N A T E, January 12, 1808.

RESOLVED, That a committee be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed on the part of the house of delegates, to inquire into the present state of our finances, and to report to the legislature such projects of investment and appropriations, as may seem most conducive to the public interest; and it shall also be the duty of such committee to call upon the treasurer of the western shore, and request him to exhibit and count in their presence, all the specie in the treasury, noting the amount of the different species of money therein, of which they shall forthwith make due report to this general assembly.

RESOLVED, That Mr. Lowrey, Mr. Covington and Mr. Partridge, be the said committee on the part of the senate.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

By the S E N A T E, January 12, 1808.

Whereas the general assembly of Maryland have, on all occasions, viewed with the deepest interest and utmost solicitude, every change in the aspect of our foreign relations, the present novel and interesting crisis peculiarly demand an expression of the public will, through the medium of the legislature; therefore, RESOLVED, That the late act of congress, imposing an embargo, is, in the opinion of this general assembly, a measure strongly characteristic of the judgment and wisdom of our national councils, and well calculated to inspire confidence in the individuals of the nation which they represent.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

Which were read.
