

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, NOVEMBER SESSION, 1807.

ORDERED, That the further additional supplementary act to the act, entitled, An act for quieting possessions, enrolling conveyances, and securing the estates of purchasers, have a second reading on Wednesday the 9th instant.

Mr. Harryman, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report :

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Thomas Dye Cockey and Joshua Frederick Cockey, executors of Thomas Cockey Dye, deceased, of Baltimore county, praying the legislature to pass a resolution directing the auditor to state his account, and the treasurer to pay whatever may be found to be the amount of the surplus interest therein stated, and the interest received thereon by the state, have examined the same, and find the facts as stated to be true, and are of opinion that the prayer of the petitioners ought to be granted; therefore submit to the house the following resolution :

RESOLVED, That the auditor-general be and he is hereby authorised and directed to examine and liquidate the claim of the petitioners, and ascertain the amount of interest due them, if any, on certain final settlement certificates, prior to the first day of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-five, paid by the said Thomas Cockey Dye, of whom the petitioners are executors, to the trustees appointed to sell the land of Archibald Buchanan, and also the amount of interest received by this state of the United States, on account of surplus interest paid by the said Thomas Cockey Dye to certain trustees appointed to sell the lands of the said Archibald Buchanan, and by them paid into the treasury; and that the said auditor-general report said liquidation of accounts to this general assembly as soon as convenient.

All which is submitted.

By order,

D. L. JACOB, clk.

Which was read.

The house, according to the order of the day, proceeded to the second reading of the bill to establish a chancery court on the eastern shore of this state, and to repeal such parts of the constitution and form of government as may be incompatible with the same, and, on progression, the question was put, That the further consideration of the same be postponed until Thursday the 10th instant? Resolved in the affirmative.
