C H A P. XXXIV.

Passed 31st of Dec. 1803.

An ACT to authorise and empower the levy court of Baltimore county to assess and levy a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of David Parlett, of Baltimore county, that by an act passed in the year seventeen hundred and ninety-one, to lay out a road at the charge of Baltimore county from the Little Falls of Gunpowder to Baltimore-town, in continuation of the road from Belle-Air to the said falls, five freeholders might be appointed, and a majority of whom might ascertain the damages resulting to any individual by opening the said road through his lands: And whereas the said road runs a considerable distance through the lands of the said David Parlett, and in order to ascertain the damages sustained by the said David Parlett, five freeholders, agreeably to the provisions of said law, were appointed to estimate the sum to be allowed to said David Parlett, and a majority of the said freeholders did, agreeably to the provisions of said law, adjudge and award the sum of one hundred and twenty pounds to be paid to the said David Parlett, which sum has never been paid to the said David Parlett by the said county; therefore,

Court to assess money, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Baltimore county be and they are hereby authorised and required to assess and levy, on the inhabitants thereof, the said sum of one hundred and twenty pounds, for the use of the said David Parlett, in full payment of the aforesaid sum awarded to him.
