

(h) To the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars to the Board of Managers of the Maryland Institute, a body corporate, duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland (designated as and named the "Board of Directors of the Maryland Institute" in the said will), in trust and confidence to invest the same in some safe and secure investment, and the net income or interest therefrom to divide into two equal parts, to be used as cash prizes, one to be awarded by said Board in its discretion to such student graduating in the mechanical department, and the other part to such student graduating in the architectural department, said prizes to be known as the "Martin Meyerdirk Prizes," as set forth and contained in Section 22 of the aforesaid will.

(106) To the deed and conveyance in fee simple from John H. Dietrich and Lula Dietrich, his wife, Susie B. Dietrich, widow of Hammond Dietrich, deceased, Julia B. Dietrich, widow of William T. Dietrich, deceased, Andrew J. Dietrich and Susannah H. Dietrich, his wife, A. Clarence Dietrich and Margaretta J. Dietrich, his wife, and J. Clifford Dietrich and Grace Dietrich, his wife, all of the City of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, to the Vestry of St. Thomas Church Homestead, a body corporate, duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland, of the lot of ground lying in Baltimore City aforesaid, and located on the northeast side of Alameda, extending from Thirty-first Street to Thirty-second Street, fronting 211.02 feet on the Alameda with a depth of 110 feet to an alley 15 feet wide, and more particularly described in said deed; the said deed being dated January 10, 1921, and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore City, in Liber S. C. L. No. 3689, folio 378, etc.

(107) To the sale, grant and deed made and executed by Irwin Tieperman (also known as Joe Tipman), and Margaruite A. Tieperman, his wife, to the Salvation Army, a corporation of the State of New York, incorporated by Act of 1899, Chapter 468, of all those chattels and personal property located in the premises known as Reilly's Hotel, at 410 and 412 West Franklin Street, in Baltimore City: said chattel deed bearing date of April 20, 1920, and recorded among the Chattel Records of Baltimore City, in Liber S. C. L. No. 284, folio 318, etc.

(108) To the sale, grant and deed made and executed by Helen M. Prendiville to the Salvation Army, a corporation of