

provision may be made for the government of the City of Annapolis and of the Annapolis Water Company through a commission and a city manager. Said commission to draft such amendments shall consist of the Mayor of Annapolis, the City Counselor of Annapolis, one member of the City Council to be named by said City Council, and five residents of Annapolis, who shall be named by the City Council.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the commission so appointed shall have power to frame a plan of government for the City of Annapolis through a commission and city manager, the sections of such plan as drafted to take the place of such sections of the City Charter, embraced in Article 2, Section 28 of the Code of Public Local Laws, and Acts amendatory thereto, as may be indicated by said commission, and to take the place of Chapter 123 of the Acts of 1865, and the Acts amendatory thereto, the charter of the Annapolis Water Company, incorporated under such act, being abrogated upon this Act becoming effective, all of its powers, rights, property, and obligations devolving upon the commission to be provided and constituted as the governing body of the City of Annapolis.

SEC. 3A. The plan of government for the City of Annapolis to be prepared by the commission provided in this Act and submitted to the qualified voters of the said city for approval or rejection may contain provisions for the conduct of municipal primary and general elections, but shall not alter existing law as to qualifications for registration, and no powers not now vested by law in the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis or the Annapolis Water Company shall be granted any body or person, through or by reason of any portion of the plan of city government drafted or prepared by the commission provided in this Act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That within sixty days after the draft of the proposed changes in the charter of the City of Annapolis and for the abrogation of the charter of the Annapolis Water Company are submitted to the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis by the said commission, the said Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis shall call a special election at which the qualified voters of the City of Annapolis, as shown by the registration books for the last municipal election, shall determine whether or not the changes and provisions and the repealing of the charter of the Annapolis Water Company, as provided and set out by such commission shall become effect-
