

“For Water and Sewer Extension Bonds,” with a blank square opposite at the right of said words and immediately thereunder shall be the following words:

“Against Water and Sewer Extension Bonds,” with a blank square opposite at the right of said words.

And in event that said election shall be held at the same time that the regular town election is held, said words and blank squares shall be printed on the regular ballot for said election, and the officials in charge of said regular election shall act as officials of this election and said votes shall be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner as are the votes for the regular election.

And in event that said election shall be held at some other time than a regular election, then the Mayor and Council shall appoint the necessary officers to conduct said election and said election and the count and canvass of said ballots shall be conducted as provided in the town charter for all general town elections.

And in event that said election shall be held at some time other than a regular election the poll books showing the registered voters of said town last registered shall be used.

And in event that at such election the majority of votes cast for and against the issuing of said bonds shall be in favor of issuing said bonds, then this Act shall be in full force and effect, but in event that the majority of votes so cast shall be against the issuing of said bonds then the Mayor and Common Council may submit the same question in the same manner and under this Act to the qualified voters of said town at the general town election, held in said town in May, 1923, in the same method and manner as hereinbefore provided and if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be “For Water and Sewer Extension Bonds,” then the Mayor and Common Council may proceed at any time to execute the powers vested in it by the provisions of this Act, but if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be “Against Water and Sewer Extension Bonds,” then this Act shall be void and of no effect.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members
