

in the manner hereinbefore provided. Each assistant shall devote his entire time to his duties during such days as the County Road Engineer may determine.

Approved April 4, 1922.

---

CHAPTER 185.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 321A2 of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Wild Fowl."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 321A2 of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Wild Fowl," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

Section 321A2. That it shall be lawful for the citizens of the Neck or Election District No. 8 of Dorchester County to erect, set or maintain booby blinds, stake blinds or similar artificial blinds for the purpose of shooting wild fowl on a line drawn from Mills Point in a northeastward direction in the waters of Brannoeks or Trippes Bay to the southeast corner of what is known as the Great Flats, and from thence to what is known as Weir Point or Orchard Marsh, and said blinds above referred to not to be less than three hundred yards apart measured in a straight line. Be it further provided, that it shall be lawful for said citizens to erect, set or maintain booby blinds, stake blinds or similar artificial blinds on the waters of Todds Bay out to and on a line drawn two hundred yards northeast of Todds Point, then running south southeast to a point at the mouth of Chapel Creek known as Mitchells Point; provided, said blinds in or on Todds Bay shall not be less than five hundred yards apart measured in a straight line.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws, both local and general, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, whether passed at this session of the Legislature or at former sessions, are hereby repealed. This Act shall take effect from June 1st, 1922.

Approved April 13th, 1922.