

members, a President of the Town Council, a town clerk, a treasurer, a tax collector, a police magistrate, an attorney, a weighmaster, a street commissioner, a police officer and such other special policemen as the public welfare of said town may require in any case of emergency, who shall severally perform such duties and have such powers as may be prescribed by law and the ordinances passed in pursuance to said charter of said town.

The Mayor and members of said Town Council shall be elected for the period of two years from the second Monday in March, 1922, and shall hold office from the first Monday in April following, except those three who were elected in March, 1921, who shall continue in office until the month of April, 1923, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

The Mayor shall have the right to appoint the police magistrate, the attorney to the town and the police officer, by and with the advice and consent of the Town Council, but the town clerk, street commissioner, and the collector of taxes and weighmaster shall be elected by the Town Council, and said appointees shall each hold their respective offices and enter upon their duties from the first Monday of April of the year in which they were so appointed, or until their successors are appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed for cause in the discretion of the said Town Council.

170A. That the election of the Mayor and three members of the Town Council shall be held in said town on the second Monday of March, 1922, and shall hold office for the term of two years from the date of their election and qualification; provided that all of said officers as heretofore designated and appointed by either the Mayor or Town Council shall hold their respective offices for the term of one year, and any wilful neglect of duty of said officers so appointed, inefficiency in the performance of their duties or by death or resignation shall be sufficient cause for removal, and in the event of any such removal, the Town Council shall have power to appoint some competent person for the unexpired term of such officer so removed, and said Town Council shall have the right to remove such officer and appoint his successor; and provided further that it shall be competent for the Mayor and Town Council to fix the compensation of said officers so appointed, as provided in Section 168, during their incumbency.
