

entitled to any increase in salary that may herein be granted, from the time this section (as re-enacted in 1922) goes into effect.

High schools for colored children shall be kept open not less than one hundred and sixty (160) actual school days in each year; and such high schools shall be entitled to State aid when approved by the State Board of Education as provided for other high schools.

133. All money appropriated, subsequent to the enactment of this section, by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland and the receipts from any State public school tax levied by the General Assembly, to aid in support of public schools, shall constitute what shall be known as the General State School Fund. The Comptroller shall charge against and pay as hereinbefore or hereinafter provided from the General State School Fund, the annual appropriation made by the General Assembly for the support of the State Department of Education, including the expenses of the State Board of Education, and the support and expenses of the office of the State Superintendent of Schools; the annual appropriation for the maintenance and support of the state normal school at Towson, of the state normal school No. 2 at Frostburg, and of the state normal school No. 3 at Bowie, the annual appropriation for retired teachers' pensions; the annual appropriation for state aid to approved high schools; the annual appropriation for state aid to approved colored industrial schools; the annual appropriation for part payment by the State of the salaries of county superintendents and of the Superintendent of Schools of Baltimore City, and of supervising teachers or helping teachers, in each of the several counties and the City of Baltimore; the annual appropriation for payment by the State of the entire salary of one attendance officer in each of the several counties and the City of Baltimore; the annual appropriation for the purchase of textbooks, materials of instruction and school supplies; such special appropriations to be known as an Equalization Fund, as may, from time to time, be made by Budget Bill or Supplementary Appropriation Bill, to the county boards of education of certain counties to enable them to pay the minimum salaries prescribed in this Article for county superintendents, supervising teachers and helping teachers, high school and elementary school teachers, and teachers in colored schools; provided, that the board of county commissioners of each of the several counties sharing in the Equalization Fund shall levy and collect an annual tax
