

of persons shall vote "For Incorporation" than shall vote "Against Incorporation," then the provisions of the foregoing sections shall become operative.

SEC. 22. And be it further enacted, That Charles N. Phillips and J. A. Lusby are hereby appointed judges and Mr. D. H. McLoud is hereby appointed Clerk of Election to be held on the 2nd day of June, 1924, for the purpose of ratifying or rejecting this Charter. Should said Charter be adopted at the election held on the 2nd day of June, 1924, then and in that event, the above-named persons shall constitute the Board of Election Supervisors, provided for in Section 7 of this Act, and shall discharge the duties of said Board, as provided for by Sections 7 and 8 of this Act, until such time as their successors shall have been duly appointed and qualified. It shall be the duty of said Charles N. Phillips, J. A. Lusby and Mr. D. H. McLoud or their successor or successors in office, to determine the qualifications and rights of each voter to participate in the special election provided for in Section 21 of this Act, by asking each applicant who presents him or herself to cast his ballot at the election, which they have been appointed to conduct, under oath, these questions: First, Have you resided within the town of Edmonston for a period of one year previous to this election? Second, Are you a qualified voter in the State of Maryland or any other State in the United States? Should the answers of the applicant be in the affirmative to both questions, then it shall be the duty of the said Board of Election Supervisors to allow such applicant to cast his or her ballot, and should the answer of the applicant be in the negative to either of the above questions, then and in that event he or she shall not be allowed to vote. Should the applicant answer either one of the above provided questions falsely, he or she shall be guilty of the crime of perjury and subject to the penalties provided by the law of the State of Maryland.

SEC. 23. And be it further enacted, That Mr. D. H. McLoud is hereby appointed Clerk of the town of Edmonston for the purpose of providing a polling place, preparing ballots and attending such other duties as shall be necessary to conduct the election provided for in Section 21 of this Act, and in the event that this Charter is adopted at the election held on the 2nd day of June, 1924, provided for in Section 21 of this Act, then and in that event, the said Mr. D. H. McLoud shall continue to act in the capacity above designated at the succeeding election held for the purpose of electing the officers of said town, and the
