

not bid for, or if an insufficient price be bid for them, they may subsequently be disposed of under direction of said Board of County Commissioners or the majority of them, at private sale, upon the best terms they can obtain for the same; provided they shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest, and provided further that said Board of County Commissioners in their discretion shall have the right to reject any and all bids.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the said Board of County Commissioners is hereby authorized to expend from the monies realized from the sale of said bonds so much as may be necessary in payment of the expenses of engraving, printing and other outlays in connection with the issue of the loan hereby authorized and for the payment of the advertising directed by this Act and all other incidental expenses connected with the execution of its provisions in connection with said loan.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That before the issuing of said bonds or any of them, the question of the issuing of said bonds as hereinbefore set forth shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of Carroll County, at a special election to be held in said county on Monday, the 26th day of September, 1927, and the Supervisors of Election of Carroll County shall furnish the ballots necessary for said election and shall have printed on said ballot the title of this Act, and upon said ballots shall be printed these words, with a suitable square to the right of each:

FOR THE ROAD BOND ISSUE

AGAINST THE ROAD BOND ISSUE

And, if at said election the number of ballots cast upon said question and reading "For the Road Bond Issue" shall exceed the number of ballots cast upon said question and reading "Against the Road Bond Issue," the said Board of County Commissioners shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow on the faith and credit of said county in an amount not exceeding Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) and to issue bonds therefor for the purposes and in the manner heretofore provided in this Act; and, if at said election the number of ballots cast upon said question and reading "Against the Road Bond Issue" shall exceed the number of ballots cast upon said question and reading "For the
