

Road Bond Issue," then the provisions of this Act shall be void and inoperative, and no part of said loan shall be negotiated, and said bonds shall not be issued; and said election shall be held under the direction of the Supervisors of Election of Carroll County, and shall in all respects be held and conducted in conformity with the provisions of the General Laws of the State of Maryland pertaining to elections in said State, except that for said special election the said Supervisors of Election shall select and appoint two judges of election and two clerks of election for each voting precinct in said County, and said judges and clerks shall be selected without any reference to the political affiliation of said persons so selected and appointed judges and clerks for said election, provided that said persons so selected and appointed as judges and clerks for said special election shall possess all other qualifications required of such judges and clerks of election by the provisions of the General Election Laws of the State of Maryland; and said Supervisors of Elections shall, not less than thirty days before the day fixed for said special election, notify and secure the acceptance of their appointments by said persons so selected and appointed as judges and clerks of said special election; and the said Supervisors of Election shall give notice of the names of all such judges and clerks, and in every case of their several residences and precincts for which they have been selected and appointed, by causing the same to be published once in one week before the 19th day of September, 1927, in two weekly newspapers published in Carroll County, one of which shall be of the opposite political faith from a majority of said supervisors; and on the day of said special election the polls shall be open at eight o'clock A. M. and close at six o'clock P. M. and the said Supervisors of Election shall forthwith certify the result of said special election to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll County, as the results of other elections are certified to said clerk under the provisions of the General Election Laws of the State of Maryland; and the said Clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll County shall forthwith certify the same to the Board of County Commissioners of Carroll County.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June, 1927.

Approved April 5, 1927.