

approved by the said Game Warden to prevent ingress and egress of such deer or elk as are kept thereon.

(c) Such elk or deer or other game so kept in an enclosure shall be deemed as personal property of the owner as fully to all intents and purposes as other personal property.

65. It shall be unlawful for any person to wilfully damage or destroy any game pen, fence or other enclosure used for the purpose of raising and propagating game maintained upon land or water, or to hunt, poison, wound, destroy, remove or steal any game, their young or eggs, or to trespass or enter into any such game pen or enclosure, unless by and with the consent of the owner or lessee of the land on which said game pen, fence or other enclosure is kept or maintained.

66. It shall be unlawful for any licensee, or his agent, or employee, to neglect to return to the Game Warden any tag with the information thereon required, or to kill, sell, give away, remove or ship any game bred or raised, unless first notifying the Game Warden and making application to kill, sell, give away, remove or ship:

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to neglect to remove and return to the Game Warden any tag attached to any container, or to any game.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to remove or destroy any tag attached to any container or bird or animal except in the manner and at the time and place provided by law.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to use any tag of the kind herein provided for the carrying, removal, or shipment of game or the eggs of game birds, taken or killed outside of premises used for propagating game, under authority of a license, or for the purpose of a second shipment of game from any such premises. Nothing contained herein requiring the tagging of game shall apply to any game released within this State, or hatched from eggs of game birds and released for stocking purpose, or sold to the Game Warden or representative for propagating purposes.

(d) Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this sub-title, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of this State shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00)
