SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the bonds authorized by this Act shall be exempt from State, County and municipal taxation.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 26, 1927.

CHAPTER 627.

AN ACT to authorize and direct the Police Commissioner of Baltimore City to pay a pension to the mother of Charles L. Frank, deceased, a former member of the Police Department of Baltimore City.

WHEREAS, Charles L. Frank, on June 20, 1924, was shot and killed while on duty with the police force of Baltimore City; and

WHEREAS, said Charles L. Frank left no widow, but a mother, Mrs. Annie W. Kennedy, aged 71; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Police Commissioner of Baltimore City be and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay to Mrs. Annie W. Kennedy, the mother of Charles L. Frank, a former police officer, a pension out of the funds in the possession of the said Commissioner, or subject to his control, and to be paid at such times and in such amounts as would be paid to the widow of a patrolman of the same grade.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1927.

Approved April 26, 1927.
