

necessary to a proper discharge of their official duties. The Mayor and Common Council shall receive no pay for their services. The Mayor shall be president of the Council and preside at its meetings, and shall have all the privileges of a Councilman in debate and vote. He shall have no power to veto any measure, but every resolution or ordinance passed by the Council must be signed by the Mayor, or by four Councilmen and be recorded before the same shall be enforced. The Council may elect one of their number as chairman pro tempore, who shall in the absence or inability of the Mayor preside at the sessions. Special meetings of the Council may at any time be convened by the Mayor, or at the request of four members of that body. The Mayor of the town of Fairmount Heights shall be the executive officer thereof, clothed with all the powers necessary to secure the enforcement of all ordinances of said town under this charter. At all meetings of the Mayor and Common Council the Mayor and four Councilmen, or in the absence of the Mayor, four Councilmen, present and voting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and four affirmative votes shall be necessary for the passage of an ordinance, law or resolution, at all times. No ordinance shall be passed by the Council except at stated public meetings. Upon every vote the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution or ordinance, shall be reduced to writing and read before the vote is taken thereon.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the elections hereunder shall be held at such places as the Mayor and Common Council of Fairmount Heights shall designate, after at least ten days public notice of the same given by them and three judges and clerks to conduct same shall be designated and appointed by them at least two days prior thereto. The polls shall be kept open at such places as the Council may designate, from 7 o'clock A. M. to 6 o'clock P. M. of the day of election, when they shall be closed and the ballots publicly counted, and the said judges shall within two days after the election make a true and correct return of the same under their hands, to be addressed and transmitted to the Mayor, who shall convene the Common Council on the second Monday of May after the election to receive said returns. At said meetings the returns shall be opened by the presiding officer and certificates of election shall be forthwith issued by the clerks to the Mayor
