

assessed, or from infancy or any other cause are prevented from receiving and receipting for same, the damages so assessed shall be deposited in some bank of Willards paying interest on deposits, if any, to the credit of the person entitled to such damages and thereupon the Commissioners of Willards may proceed in the same way as if said damages had been paid to the person or persons themselves.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Willards may provide that a violation of the provisions of any ordinance may be a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Willards may pass ordinances to regulate the construction and repairing of buildings in Willards, and the granting of permits therefor, specifying the material of which same shall be built; to direct in what part of the town wooden buildings shall not be erected; to regulate the speed of horses, wheeled vehicles, automobiles in the town limits; to regulate and prevent the throwing of sweepings, dust, ashes, offal, garbage, paper or other material in any street, alley or public places, or on any vacant lot in said town; to grant and regulate franchises for electric light and gas companies, telephone and telegraph companies; all such franchises shall not be granted for a period of more than fifty years, and be renewable at discretion of the Commissioners of Willards; to regulate the keeping of dogs in said town and provide for a tax thereon, and for the collection of the same; to provide for the killing of dogs on which no taxes are paid; to prevent the running at large of horses, cattle, hogs, geese and other fowl on the streets or in the limits of said town, and to regulate the keeping of same in said town; to prohibit the use of profane language and indecent and disorderly conduct in said town; to prevent the obstruction of its sidewalks and streets; to regulate or prevent the firing of guns, pistols or any kind of fire arms in said town; to prevent immoderate riding or driving through the streets of said town of any vehicle of any character whatsoever; to prevent indecent exhibits of every kind; to preserve order and to secure persons and property from violence, danger or destruction; to prevent the obstruction of the streets and sidewalks of the said town by unnecessary assemblies of persons; to protect public and private property, sidewalks, streets, and shade and ornamental trees from injury and destruction; to provide for fire protec-