

circumstances, does not customarily work the customary scheduled full-time hours prevailing in the establishment in which he is employed.

(2) The Board shall prescribe fair and reasonable general rules applicable to part-time workers, for determining their full-time weekly wage, and the total wages required to qualify such workers for benefits. Such rules shall, with respect to such workers, supersede any inconsistent provisions of this act, but, so far as practicable, shall secure results reasonably similar to those provided in the analogous provisions of this Act.

(g) SEASONAL WORKERS.

(1) As used in this section the term "seasonal industry" means an occupation or industry in which, because of the seasonal nature thereof it is customary to operate only during a regularly recurring period or periods of less than twenty weeks in a calendar year. The Board shall, after investigation and hearing, determine, and may thereafter from time to time redetermine, the longest seasonal period or periods during which, by the best practice of the occupation or industry in question, operations are conducted. Until such determination by the Board, no occupation or industry shall be deemed seasonal.

(2) The term "seasonal worker" means an individual who is ordinarily engaged in a seasonal industry and who, during the portion or portions of the year when such industry is not in operation, is ordinarily not engaged in any other work.

(3) The Board shall prescribe fair and reasonable general rules applicable to seasonal workers for determining the total wages required to qualify such workers for benefits and the period during which benefits shall be payable to them.

(h) RECIPROCAL BENEFIT ARRANGEMENTS.

The Board is hereby authorized to enter into arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other States or the Federal Government whereby potential rights to benefits accumulated under the unemployment compensation laws of the several States or under such a law of the Federal Government, or both, may constitute the basis for the payment of benefits through a single appropriate agency under terms which the Board finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests and will not result in any substantial loss to the fund.
