

sub-title "Registration," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

31. All persons who after the passage of the Act of 1902, Chapter 133, shall remove into any county of this State from any other State, district or territory shall indicate their intent to become citizens and residents of this State by registering their names in a suitable record book to be procured and kept for the purpose by the clerk of the circuit court for the several counties; such record to contain their name, residence, age and occupation; and the intent of such person to become a citizen and resident of this State shall date from the day on which such registry shall be so entered in such record book by the clerk of the circuit court for the county into which such person shall so remove from any other state, district or territory. And no person coming into this State from any other state, district or territory shall be entitled to registration as a legal voter of this State until one year after his intent to become such legal voter shall be thus evidenced by such entry in such record book, and such entry or a duly certified copy thereof shall be the only competent and admissible evidence of such intent. And the clerk of the several courts of the several counties shall immediately upon the passage of this Act, procure a suitable record book for the recording therein of such entries arranged alphabetically under the names of such persons. For every person so registered under the provisions of this section they shall be entitled to demand and receive the sum of twenty-five cents, to be paid to said clerks by the county commissioners. A copy of such record duly certified by said clerk shall be evidence of the right of such person to registration as legal voters according to law, and each person so registered shall be entitled to such certified copy upon demand without charge. This section shall only apply to Baltimore County and to Prince George's County.

32. Any person who shall have removed into any county of this State in which Section 31 of this Article is not applicable, or into the City of Baltimore, from any other state, and who shall have actually had his or her residence within the borders of this State for the period of one year preceding the date of the election for which he desires to register, as hereinafter set forth, may prove the fact of his or her said residence in the following manner:
