

penditures called for in the Bill. For this reason we are unable to advise you to sign the bill, and we, therefore, recommend that you veto it.

The bill in the form in which it was finally passed is so obscurely and ambiguously worded that we do not believe it will fully accomplish the purposes for which it was intended, but as the subject is one of such vital importance we recommend that you appoint a Commission to study the whole question and report to you before the next session of the Legislature as to the wisdom of legislation of this character, and to suggest the most practicable and workable form which such proposed legislation should take.

Respectfully submitted,

ALLAN McLANE, Chairman,
A. H. BISHOP,
THOMAS H. ROBINSON,
JOHN W. STATON,
WILLIAM C. WALSH.

For the reasons set out in the above report, there is nothing for me to do except disapprove the measure.

I will, of course, adopt the committee's recommendation and appoint a commission to study the whole question thoroughly and report to the next session of the General Assembly as to the wisdom of legislation of this character, and to suggest the most practicable and workable form which such legislation should take.

In addition to this, I will try to arrange with the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for him to send one or more men from his department to one or two of the counties of the State for the purpose of actually issuing the 1930 licenses there. The cost of trying out the experiment on a small scale like this could probably be met, and this would furnish a practical demonstration of exactly how the plan of issuing licenses in the counties would work.

In connection with this general subject, it is important to remember that the recent Legislature passed a bill authorizing the purchaser of a new car to use the tags from his old car on the new car for a period of five days, during which time he can secure his new license. I will approve this bill. It will enable the purchaser to transfer his old tags to his new car and drive off in the new car at once, and I feel confident that
