

of the said Mayor and Common Council, said note or notes to be signed by the Mayor of said town, the seal of said municipal corporation attached and attested by the Clerk of said town, for the purpose of liquidating the floating indebtedness of said town amounting to thirty-seven hundred dollars, the improvement of the streets thereof, the preservation of the health and safety of the inhabitants of said town, and for other municipal purposes.

73D. At any time hereafter that it may become necessary for the said Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, Maryland, to borrow money for the necessary and proper administration of the affairs of said town, the improvement of the streets of said town, the preservation of the health and safety of the inhabitants thereof, or for other municipal purposes, the said Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, Maryland, shall have the power and authority to borrow on the note or notes of the said Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, Maryland, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary, not to exceed in the aggregate at any time whatsoever the sum of ten thousand dollars, said note or notes to be executed as prescribed in the preceding section.

73E. In order to pay any or all promissory notes which may be executed and delivered by the said Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, Maryland, in acknowledgment of money lent to said Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, Maryland, as the same shall become due and payable, the said Mayor and Common Council shall have the power and authority to levy upon the assessable property within the limits of said town a tax, in addition to what they are now authorized to levy, sufficient therefor, not to exceed, however, in any one year, the rate of ten cents upon each one hundred dollars of assessable basis.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 2, 1929.
