

Trustees of Saint Peter's School and Saint Peter's Asylum for Female Children, and to prescribe the terms and conditions of said consolidation.

WHEREAS, the Trustees of Saint Peter's School were duly incorporated by an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland known as Chapter 6 of the Acts of 1805-1806; and Saint Peter's Asylum for Female Children was duly incorporated by an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland known as Chapter 525 of the Acts of 1849-1850; and the objects and purposes of said two corporations are substantially similar, and a consolidation of the two would conduce to efficiency and economy of administration, and

WHEREAS, the said two corporate bodies, by the unanimous action of their respective Boards of Trustees, who constitute the entire present corporate bodies of said institutions, have, at separate meetings duly called for that purpose, resolved to consolidate into one corporation to be called Saint Peter's School and Asylum; and have accordingly entered into an agreement with each other so to consolidate.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the two corporations of said State known as Trustees of Saint Peter's School, and Saint Peter's Asylum for Female Children, be and they are hereby consolidated into one corporation under the corporate name of Saint Peter's School and Asylum.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the corporation of said consolidated institution shall be composed of seven Trustees to consist of Messrs. Charles E. Falconer, Henry H. Weigand, David A. Ralston, George E. Hardy, J. Dudley Mason, John E. Hurst of W. and Wallis Giffen, and their successors, who, and the survivors of whom, are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time, to fill, from among the male members of Grace and Saint Peter's Church, a religious corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Maryland, located in the City of Baltimore, said State, all vacancies in the number of said trustees from whatever cause arising, and are vested solely and exclusively with the entire operation, management and control of the consolidated corporation and the exercise of all of the corpo-
