

each entity thereof borrowing money or incurring indebtedness under the provisions of this Act by providing the destitute and unemployed inhabitants of such entity with assistance, food, shelter, supplies, necessities and other relief, either alone, or in conjunction and cooperation with the State or Federal Government.

(b) For the general protection and preservation of the peace, safety, health and welfare of the State, and each entity thereof borrowing money or incurring indebtedness under the provisions of this Act by providing work and labor for the destitute and unemployed residents and inhabitants of such entity; such work and labor to be provided either as a part of a general State or Federal Governmental plan or to be undertaken by such entity alone.

201. (a) That a county shall avail itself of the provisions of this Act in the following manner: There shall be duly passed by the County Commissioners a motion or resolution stating in substance that the County has determined to avail itself of the provisions of this Act, and binds itself to fulfill all obligations incurred under this Act.

(b) That an incorporated town or city shall avail itself of the provisions of this Act in the following manner: There shall be passed or enacted by the governing body of such entity a motion, resolution or ordinance stating in substance that such entity has determined to avail itself of the provisions of this Act and binds itself to fulfill all obligations incurred under this Act.

202. That each county, incorporated town or city, except the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to issue its individual notes, certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness for any sum or sums borrowed or indebtedness incurred under the provisions of this Act.

203. That the County Commissioners of each County, or the governing body of each incorporated town or city as the case may be, shall determine, subject to any and all limitations contained in this Act the following:

(a) The manner, method, means and conditions by which an indebtedness shall be incurred, or money borrowed under the provisions of this Act;

(b) The kind and character of obligations which shall be issued under the provisions of this Act;