

(h) It shall be unlawful for any person having a license under this Act, excepting Clubs, Restaurants and Hotels which may sell light beer in connection with food, to sell any intoxicating beverages between the hours of 12:00 o'clock Midnight and 7:00 o'clock A. M. and on Sunday, and Election and Primary Day in the County, or on Election or Primary Day in any incorporated municipality on days of municipal elections or primaries.

(i) It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Act to violate any provision of his application or of the license issued thereunder.

(j) Any person or persons, upon indictment and conviction of violation of any provisions of Sections 316G and 316H, shall be fined a sum not in excess of $1,000.00, or shall be confined in the jail of Allegany County or in the House of Correction of the State of Maryland for a period not to exceed two years, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court, and in the event that said person so convicted shall be a licensee under the provisions of this Act, his license may be suppressed and no license under this Act shall thereafter be granted to such person for a period of three years from the date of his conviction and suppression of license; and the Court may provide that no license shall be granted to the premises upon which said license has been formerly held for a period of not exceeding twelve months after said conviction.

Section 316I. Every manufacturer or wholesaler, or Licensee under this Act, who shall be liable to the payment of any taxes upon alcoholic liquors manufactured or sold by said Licensee to the State of Maryland, shall keep an accurate record of alcoholic beverages sold by him, and every retailer who shall be liable for any tax upon the sale of alcoholic beverages shall keep an accurate record of all purchases and sales of such beverages for the period of one year from the date of such sale or purchase, and every such record shall plainly indicate the date of each sale or purchase, the quantity thereof in gallons or fractional parts thereof, and the name and address of each purchaser or seller, all of which records shall be kept in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Comptroller of the State of Maryland, and shall be open to the inspection by the Comptroller or any of his deputies or inspectors during all regular business hours. Every license holder shall at any time and from time to time, upon written request of the Comptroller, report under oath on forms prescribed by the
