

and distributors may or may not be members of any organization of distributors. The members of any such advisory board shall serve without compensation. Any such advisory board or any such advisory boards acting in conjunction in any marketing area may submit to the Commission recommendations with respect to rules and regulations to be adopted by the Commission, or to be adopted with its approval by any such association of producers, or of distributors, or of both. The Commission may adopt or approve any such rules or regulations which may be designed to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

(g) To adopt and enforce all rules, regulations and orders necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, including rules and regulations establishing minimum prices to be paid by milk dealers to producers and others, and to be charged by producers and others to milk dealers for milk in its various grades and uses governing the method of determining the proportion of the lacteal secretion of the entire herd of a producer which shall be accepted and paid for pursuant to such price or prices as may be established by the Commission under authority of this Act, and such price shall be f. o. b. distributive plant in the respective sales area; provided that the Commission shall have power to establish equitable deductions for milk received by distributors at receiving stations, establishing minimum wholesale or retail prices to be charged by milk dealers for milk handled within the State for fluid consumption where-soever produced or establishing other reasonable trade practices and prices affecting the relations between the producers and distributors in any market or affecting the marketing of milk at wholesale or retail in any market. Every rule, regulation or order of the Commission shall be continuously posted for public inspection in the principal office of the Commission for at least five days prior to its effective date, and copies shall be mailed to all dealers affected thereby; provided, however, that in an emergency in the determination of the Commission, the five days posting may be waived. An order applying only to a person or persons named therein shall be served on the person or persons affected by personal delivery of a certified copy, or by mailing such certified copy to each person affected thereby, or in the case of a corporation to any officer or agent thereof upon whom a summons may be served in a civil action. The posting required by this section shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons affected by any such rule, regulation or order which is not hereby required to be served.