

Said license shall be good for the year of issuance only.

All persons taking and catching clams under the provisions of this section shall exhibit their license whenever required to do so by any officer of the Conservation Department or other officer of the State.

Boys of twelve years of age and under shall not be required to secure a license.

Non-residents of the State desiring to take or catch clams in the waters of Worcester County shall first obtain a license from the clerk of the court of said county and shall pay therefor the sum of $2.00, and in addition thereto 25 cents to the clerk of the court for issuing the same, but non-residents shall not be permitted to take clams for sale under any conditions. The taking of more than one hundred (100) clams per day by any person shall be prima facie evidence of taking of same for sale.

102. Any person engaged in the business of shipping or marketing clams taken from the waters of Worcester County shall first obtain a license from the clerk of the court of Worcester County and shall pay the sum of $25.00, and in addition thereto 50 cents to the clerk of the court for issuing same.

Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the catcher of clams to market his own catch.

In addition to the above license fee of $25.00, a separate license fee of 5 cents per thousand on the number of clams bought, sold or marketed by him shall be paid.

A clam dealer shall be further required to deduct the 5 cents per thousand on all clams sold him by the catcher and shall remit this, together with the additional license fee of 5 cents per thousand, to the inspector of the Conservation Department weekly on a report provided for that purpose.

It shall be the duty of the inspector to collect said license of 10 cents per thousand from the dealer and 5 cents per thousand from the catcher, if due by him, and to remit weekly to the Conservation Department and by it to the State Comptroller.

This license shall be good for the year of issuance only.

103. Any person violating the provisions of the two preceding sections, upon conviction before a justice of the peace or court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined the sum of $25.00 or be committed to jail until said fine is paid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall become effective upon the sale by the Board of Public Works of
