CHAPTER 432.

AN ACT to add four new sections to Article 72 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Oysters," sub-title "Oyster Culture," said new sections to be known as Sections 154A, 154B, 154C and 154D and to follow immediately after Section 154 of said Article, relating to the application of the oyster laws as codified in said Article 72 to the waters of Worcester County, and repealing Sections 162 to 186, both inclusive, of Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Worcester County," sub-title "Oysters and Clams," and repealing all other Public General and Public Local Laws of Maryland in conflict therewith.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That four new sections be and they are hereby added to Article 72 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Oysters," sub-title "Oyster Culture," said new sections to be known as Sections 154A, 154B, 154C and 154D, and to follow immediately after Section 154 of said Article, and to read as follows:

154A. On and after June 1, 1931, all the waters of Worcester County shall be subject to the provisions of Article 72 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland relating to oysters, the same as the waters of Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries, except the provisions of the following sections of said Article, viz: 98, 101, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 116, 117, 118, 120, 121, 126, 128, 131, 153 and 154; and except such changes and modifications in the Oyster Culture Laws as provided for in this Act.

154B. The waters of Worcester County, except those exempted by Section 125, are hereby declared to be open for oyster culture, according to the provisions of this sub-title and as herein provided.
