

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall become effective only after it shall be submitted to the legally qualified voters within the corporate limits of the City of Cambridge aforesaid, the legal qualification of each voter being the same that is required to permit any voter to vote in any legal and regular municipal election held in said City of Cambridge, or shall have the same qualifications of a legal voter as required by the Charter of Cambridge, in order to vote at any regular election of Commissioners, as heretofore enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, and this Act shall be submitted to the said legal voters of said city, on the 2nd Wednesday of July, 1931, and on said day, which is the 8th of July, 1931, The Commissioners of Cambridge, in each of the five wards of the said city, shall hold an election in the same way and manner in which elections are held in said city for the election of a commissioner for each of said wards, as such elections are required to be held by the Charter, and The Commissioners of Cambridge shall at a time reasonably sufficient prior to said day of election, at the City Hall, conduct a registration, by which those legally qualified to register in any ward may do so, or any that have the legal right to remove his or her registration from one ward to another, may do so, in order that all persons legally entitled to vote upon the submission of this Act, shall be able to do so, and the Clerk to The Commissioners of Cambridge shall conduct such registration in person, or by such assistants as may be provided for him by The Commissioners of Cambridge and The Commissioners of Cambridge shall appoint judges and clerks, and provide ballots, and do all other things, the same as is done in the legal election of a commissioner from each of said wards, as aforesaid.

Notice of the submission of this Act to the said voters, at the said election, shall be published at least once a week for four weeks prior to said election, in two newspapers published in said City of Cambridge, which notice shall show the time and place where the election will be held, the hours of holding the same, and there shall be added to the notice published in the first two weeks of the said four weeks, on what day, and at what place in the City Hall persons desiring to register or transfer their registration, may do so, such day and hours being determined by The Commissioners of Cambridge prior to the publication of said notice, and the said The Commissioners of Cambridge shall name a time for registration, for which they shall give notice as aforesaid. And the said notice
