

It shall be unlawful to catch or attempt to catch aforesaid fish, except eels, by any contrivance other than rod, hook and line, held by the hand.

It shall be unlawful to catch eels by any contrivance except by use of slat basket commonly known as Chesapeake Bay eel pot, and except as provided above.

It shall be lawful, however, to catch such fish as permitted during open season by use of dip net in the waters of the Susquehanna River between Hog Back Shoals and the mouth of Deer Creek; except that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit any person who has secured a resident angler's license to catch by use of dip nets suckers, catfish, carp, eels and gudgeons in the waters of Washington County (except within 100 feet below any dam) between February 15th and April 15th, both dates inclusive.

The open fishing seasons in the waters of this State, above a point where the tide ebbs and flows, including ponds, lakes, canals, and the Conowingo Pool, for the catching of fish designated in this section, shall be as follows, viz:

Trout (Brook, Brown and Rainbow)—April 1st to June 30th, except in the Youghiogheny River below Swallow Falls in Garrett County, the open season on Rainbow trout shall be July 1st to November 30th.

Bass (Large and Small Mouth)—July 1st to November 30th.

Rock or Striped Bass—June 1st to November 30th.

Susquehanna Salmon—June 1st to November 30th.

Suckers, Catfish, Carp, Eels and Gudgeon—February 1st to November 30th.

All other species of game or fresh water fish, July 1st to November 30th.

All dates mentioned above are inclusive.

The open season on fishing in Deep Creek Lake shall be as provided in Section 83 of this Article.

It shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch or have in possession in any one day more than ten each of trout or bass of any specie. Any bass or trout caught and returned to the waters shall be considered for the purpose of this section as having been either taken, caught or had in possession.

If any person is found in or about any waters designated in this section with a gig or gig iron and a light, or with nets or seines, fish pots or other fishing rigs other than permitted in this section, it shall be deemed prima facie evidence that same
