

Council so constituted shall have control and supervision over all departments of said town, and to that end shall have power to make and enforce such rules and regulations as they may see fit and proper, for and concerning the organization, management and operation of all departments of said town and whatever agencies may be created for the administration of its affairs.

100. The Mayor shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the Council, by a majority vote, the following officers:

- One Town Clerk,
- One Solicitor,
- One Town Engineer,
- One Chief of Police.

All such officers so appointed shall receive such salary or compensation as the Mayor and Council may, by ordinance, provide, payable in equal monthly instalments, and shall hold their offices for two years, or until the appointment and qualification of their successors, unless removed by the said Mayor and Council under the authority vested in it by this Act.

The Mayor and Council may by ordinance provide for the appointment of such other officers and employees of said town as it may be deemed necessary for the improvement of said town from time to time; and to provide the terms, compensation and duties of such other additional officers and employees.

101. The Mayor shall also appoint, with the confirmation by the Council, the following standing committees with the Mayor as chairman of all committees:

A. "Public Safety," consisting of two members of Council, who shall have charge of the enforcement of all police regulations and all other regulations pertaining to the safety and protection of the town.

B. "Streets, Sewers, Garbage, Electricity and Gas," consisting of two members of Council, who shall have supervision over all streets, alleys, and public thoroughfares, sewers, garbage, contracts and franchises with public utility companies, and be charged with the duty of keeping streets, alleys and public grounds in a clean and sanitary condition, and with the enforcement of all rules and regulations necessary to these ends and who shall also have under their special charge the supervision of all public improvements, except as herein otherwise provided, and shall see that all contracts therefor are
