

judges of election, and Robert Palmer and Richard Johnson as clerks; and if any of said committee are unable or decline to serve, the remaining members of said committee are empowered to select some resident voter of said town to fill his place.

The qualifications of voters on the referendum election shall be the same as those hereinbefore set forth in regard to general elections.

The said committee shall, not less than five days before said referendum election, post in five conspicuous places in said town a written or printed notice notifying all the residents of said town who are qualified to vote under this Act that an election will be held on the date fixed in this Act at a certain place and between certain hours, which notice shall contain the said date, the hours that the polls will remain open and the location of the polling place or places, and a statement that the election is to be held for the purpose of deciding whether or not to adopt this charter and form an incorporated town.

The said committee shall provide and furnish the place or places where such election shall be held, the booths, ballot boxes and sufficient number of printed ballots, upon which on one line the words "For Incorporation" shall be printed, and on another line the words "Against Incorporation," with squares opposite each.

It shall be the duty of said committee, or their successor or successors in office, to determine the qualifications and right of each voter to participate in the special election provided for in this section by asking each applicant who presents himself or herself to cast his or her ballot at an election, under oath, these questions:

1. Are you a citizen of the United States?
2. Have you resided within the corporate limits of the Town of Fairmount Heights as provided in this Act for 365 days previous to this election?

3. Are you a registered voter of Prince George's County, Maryland? Should the answers of the applicants be in the affirmative to each of said questions, then it shall be the duty of said committee to allow such applicant to cast his or her ballot, and should the answer of the applicant be in the negative to any of such questions, then and in that event he or she shall not be allowed to vote. Should the applicant answer any of the above provided questions falsely, he or she shall be guilty of the crime of perjury and subject to the penalties provided by the law for the State of Maryland.
