

changes shall be borne and paid for by the Commission out of the sanitary district funds. Every public service corporation, company or individual before it or they shall begin any excavation or construction in any street, road, alley or public highway within any sanitary district shall file with the Commission plans of such work and construction showing the location and depth in such street, road, alley or public highway, of the proposed main, conduit, pole, pipe, or other structure, and such construction or work shall not be begun until said plan shall have been approved by the Commission, nor shall any change be made in said approved plan or in the work or construction as shown upon said plans except on further approval of the Commission. Whenever any main, conduit, pipe, pole or other structure is put in without the filing of plans with the Commission and the approval thereof by it, or when any change is made in the location of such main, conduit, pipe, pole or other structure as shown upon the plans approved by the Commission, or any approved change therein, the Commission may, if and when such conduit, main, pipe or pole, or other structure, interferes with the construction or operation of its water or sewerage systems, or other works, remove such conduit, main, pipe, pole or other structure or change the location thereof at the cost and expense of the party so putting them in, or their heirs, assigns or successors, and without any liability upon the part of the Commission for damage that might be done to the same by reason of the Commission's operations in constructing or maintaining its systems or works. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 444 of this sub-title.

444. Every act or omission designated as a misdemeanor in this Act, unless otherwise provided, shall be punishable by any justice of the peace or the circuit court of the county within which such offense is committed, and upon summons, warrant or indictment upon the oath or information of any member of said Commission, or of any agent or employee thereof when expressly authorized by the Commission, and the offender shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine not exceeding $100.00, or to confinement for not more than thirty days in the county jail, or both, in the discretion of the magistrate or circuit court. Where such acts or omission is of a continuing nature and is persisted in, in violation of the provisions of this Act or of any rule or regulation formulated
