SEC. 3. And be it further enacted:

(A) That the corporate powers of said town shall be vested in and shall be exercised by, and that the said town shall be governed by, a Commission to be known as the Hillside Commission. Said Commission shall be composed of five members, elected at large, to be known as Commissioners. Said Commissioners shall be selected and shall qualify as such Commissioners in the manner provided for in this Act.

(B) That all acts and things done on behalf of said town shall be in the name of the Town of Hillside, and that all property purchased or otherwise acquired by said town shall be purchased, acquired and held in the name of the Town of Hillside.

(C) That the Hillside Commission shall by resolution choose one of its members as chairman, to be known as the Chairman Commissioner, and another of its members to be known as the Vice-Chairman Commissioner, and another member as secretary, to be known as the secretary commissioner. Such Commission may, however, choose the same member as both vice-chairman commissioner and secretary commissioner.

(D) That, subject to the provisions of this Act, such Commission may regulate the conduct of its business and meetings and the government of said town; and a majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum.

(E) That the secretary commissioner shall have charge of the town seal and all property, records, books, papers and other things of said town. Said secretary commissioner shall, within the limits of said town, have the same power and authority to administer oaths of office of the commissioner, town treasurer, members of the Board of Election Supervisors,
