

Insurance Commissioner, and duly signed by said broker's solicitor and by said broker, and there shall have been issued by the Insurance Commissioner a license to act as such broker's solicitor, for which license there shall be paid to the Insurance Commissioner the sum of twenty-five dollars by or for each such broker's solicitor. Said license shall bear the name of the broker's solicitor to whom issued and of the broker for whom he is authorized to act and shall authorize said broker's solicitor named therein to solicit insurance and re-insurance in the name of said broker, but not in his own name, or in the name of any other person, firm or corporation, and further to aid in any proper and lawful manner said broker in negotiating contracts of insurance and re-insurance, in the name of said broker, but shall not authorize or permit said broker's solicitor to act in or use his own name in soliciting or negotiating any contracts of insurance or re-insurance or in any renewal or renewals of any such contracts, or to deliver any policy or bill to any assured or collect any premium of insurance in his own name or in any other manner than in the name of and as the agent of said broker. If any such license shall be issued for any portion of any year, a ratable sum shall be charged therefor up to the first day of May next succeeding the date of such application. The broker for whom any such solicitor shall act under such license may place any insurance procured by or through said solicitor in any company and in the same manner and to the same extent as if said business had been procured or negotiated directly by said broker.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1939.

Approved May 3, 1939.
