

(a) The name of the attorney and the name or designation under which such contracts are issued, which name or designation shall not be so similar to any name or designation adopted by any attorney, or by any insurance organization in the United States, prior to the adoption of such name or designation by the attorney, as to confuse or deceive.

(b) The kind or kinds of insurance to be effected or exchanged.

(c) A copy of the form of policy contract or agreement under or by which such insurance is to be effected or exchanged.

(d) A copy of the form of power of attorney or other authority of such attorney under which such insurance is to be effected as exchanged, which power of attorney shall make provision for a contingent liability equal to not less than one additional annual premium or deposit charged: Provided, however, that where an exchange has a surplus equal to the minimum capital and surplus required of a stock insurance company transacting the same kind or kinds of business, its power of attorney need not provide for such contingent liability of subscribers, and such exchange may issue to its subscribers policies or contracts without contingent liability until notified by the Commissioner of Insurance that the surplus maintained is less than the above said amount, after which said notice the powers of attorney issued by any such exchange shall make provision for contingent liability as above required, and holders of policies issued subsequent to such notice shall be subject to contingent liability as provided in such powers of attorney.

(e) The location of the office or offices from which such contracts or agreements are to be issued.

(f) That except as to the kinds of insurance hereinafter specifically mentioned in this subdivision, application shall have been made for indemnity upon at least one hundred separate risks aggregating not less than one and one-half million dollars, represented by executed contracts or bona fide applications to become concurrently effective. In the case of employers' liability or workmen's compensation insurance, applications shall have been made for indemnity upon at least one hundred separate risks, covering a total annual payroll of not less than four million dollars, as represented by executed contracts or bona fide applications to become concurrently effective. In the case of automobile insurance, applications shall have been made for indemnity upon at least one thousand motor vehicles, represented by executed contracts or bona fide applications to become concurrently effective on any or all classes of automobile insurance effected by such subscribers through said attorney.
